

John is in touch with the signs of STROKE

Facial weakness

Sudden drooping or numbness of the face (usually on one side).

Arm or leg weakness

Sudden paralysis or numbness of the arm or leg (usually on one side of the body), loss of balance, unsteadiness or a sudden fall.

Speech difficulty

Slurred speech or difficulty speaking or communicating.

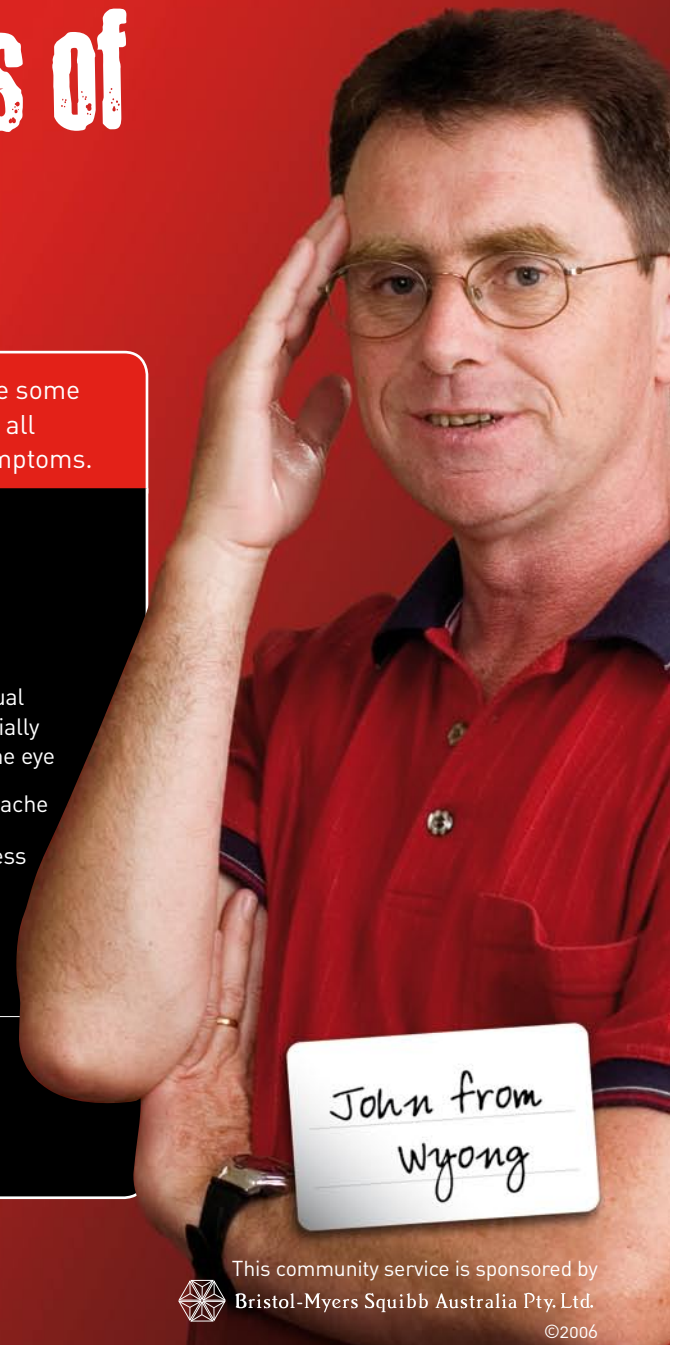

You may experience some but not necessarily all of the following symptoms.

Other signs and symptoms

- Loss of vision or visual disturbances, especially if it occurs in only one eye
- Sudden severe headache
- Unexplained dizziness
- Sudden confusion
- Difficulty swallowing

Regard these signs as an emergency. Do not waste vital moments.

IN AN EMERGENCY DIAL 000 FOR AN AMBULANCE

This community service is sponsored by
Bristol-Myers Squibb Australia Pty. Ltd.

©2006